INTRODUCTION

This index is multifaceted, each article being indexed in as many places as there are facets of useful information in it.

VOCABULARY The vocabulary of the headings is that of the Jewish Chronicle itself, and follows no set rules of library practice. Some additional headings are:- Accidents & DISASTERS; BLIND; DEAF; DEATH (excluding obituaries); DIVORCE; HANDICAPPED & DISABLED; LONELINESS; MARRIAGE, etc.

INSTITUTIONS All institutions are indexed, but some names may be inverted, e.g. ROYAL INSTITUTE OF BOTANICAL RESEARCH is indexed at INSTITUTE OF BOTANICAL RESEARCH, ROYAL.

COUNTRIES EGYPT; ISRAEL; JORDAN; USA and USSR have an inner alphabetical sequence (as do U.N.O.(UN); WOMEN; and ZIONISM).

CITIES British cities with a large Jewish Community have been divided as follows:- BIRMINGHAM: COMMUNITY; EDUCATION; SYNAGOGUES; ZION; ZIONA.

HISTORICAL FIGURES These are connected with Jewry, e.g. EINSTEIN; HITLER; MONTEFIORE; STALIN. The name of the Chief Rabbi also appears.

OBITUARIES AND BOOK REVIEWS These appear on separate reels.

FORMAT Regular columns and features are indicated and underlined, e.g. ON THE OTHER HAND; ASK THE RABBI. They also appear on their own cards (ASK THE RABBI being indexed at RABBI, ASK THE.) (CARTOONS) and (PHOTOS) are indicated, as well as Corr(espondence) and Art(icles) - the latter as opposed to items of news. By lines are acknowledged with the words "reported by ..." The figures at the end of every entry indicate location in the actual text of the Jewish Chronicle, e.g.12, 6-11 being page 12 of the issue of 6th November.

How can you say that some of the Torah is historical, but some of it can be described as myth? I believe that God gave the whole Torah at Mount Sinai and that God's Torah is the truth. - In next week's sidra we are told that the Lord ap-feared to Moses and the 70 elders of Israel (Exodus 24:9-11). What is the Rabbi's views of this incident and what legends have grown up around the event? 22.8.2.

T. Scroll appurtenances presented to the Ponsley and District Reform Jsh Communities 25.18-1.

Ask the Rabbi: How can you say that some of the Torah is historical, but that some of it can be described as 'myth'? I believe that God gave the whole Torah on Mount Sinai and that God's Torah is the truth. - In next week's Sidra we are told that the Lord appeared to Moses and the 70 elders of Israel (Exodus 24:9-11). What is the rabbi's views of this incident and what legends have grown up around the event?

TORAH

Ask the Rabbi: In next week's portion of the Law, "Terumah" (Exodus 25), in which the Children of Israel are told to bring offerings for the Ark of the Covenant, the offerings include "ram-skins dyed red." What is the significance of dyeing the ram-skins red? — In Exodus, Chapter 33, verse 11, it is said: "And the Lord spoke unto Moses face to face, as a man speaks to his friend."

And yet, in the same chapter, verse 20, it is said: "Thou canst not see My face; for no man can see Me and live." How can one reconcile these two statements? 22.15-2.

Ask the Rabbi: When it is decided to add to the seven people called up to the T. reading should the addition be made in the seventh portion (Shevi'i) or before? May any Jew

Verses be recited and is there a limit to the number of additions that can be made?

20. 11-4.

Ask the Rabbi: Why are the haftaroth not written on a scroll like the megillot or Torah? I understand that in earlier times this was done. When did it stop?
